

HISTORY OF THE GREAT WHITE BROTHERHOOD II: THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

WITH GUEST LECTURER
GOVERT SCHULLER

Tuesdays in January beginning January 10

8 pm Central time (9 pm Eastern/6 pm Pacific)

Tuition: $60.00

In this illuminating eight-hour course, Govert brings to bear over twenty years of research into the origins of the Theosophical movement that began in 1875. He presents an esoteric retrospective of 1000 years of efforts by individuals and groups in western history that led up to the founding of the Society, and discusses the key Masters, their incarnations and their students, as well as the key ideas of Theosophy under H. P. Blavatsky and also under C.W. Leadbeater and Annie Besant.

In particular, Govert has devoted much of his time to the philosophical and Theosophical study of Krishnamurti, a student who was trained for over a decade to represent the Masters but who later rejected them. A good deal of time will be spent understanding the meaning of the Masters' acceptance and training of Krishnamurti, and the effects that his latter rejection of the Masters has had on the Theosophical Society, subsequent Ascended Master movements, and the 20th century.

About Govert Schuller

A native of the Netherlands, Govert has studied philosophy at the universities of Leyden, Amsterdam and Northern Illinois University. A past lecturer for The Summit Lighthouse in Holland and the United States, Govert currently teaches courses on Theosophical History and Phenomenology for the Theosophical Society of America and New Wisdom University. Govert is widely read on the history of Ascended Master movements, with a special concentration on Theosophy and Krishnamurti. He is the author of the study "Krishnamurti and the World Teacher Project: Some Theosophical Perceptions," and the pamphlets "Krishnamurti: An Esoteric View of his Teachings" and "The Masters and Their Emissaries: From H.P.B. to Guru Ma and Beyond." Mr. Schuller's website, www.alpheus.org, is dedicated to esoteric and alternative interpretations of history.

NEW WISDOM UNIVERSITY

WINTER QUARTER

In addition to History II: The Theosophical Society, New Wisdom University is offering several new courses for Winter quarter. Join us.

SPIRITUAL TRADITIONS

Saint Germain 101—with Janette Mathis and Dr. Marsha E. Covington
Teleseminar Wednesdays throughout January and offered again Wednesdays throughout March

This class promises you an exciting adventure and a deepening friendship with this beloved adept of our time. Find out how you can work with him and even become his student. We'll talk about his history and teachings and introduce you to his violet flame technology for healing and transformation.

THE NEW WISDOM

Lanello on the Path of the Bodhisattva—with Dr. Marsha E. Covington

Live seminar, Chicago, February 24 – 26

Get acquainted with a real 20th century adept and learn how he walked the path in many embodiments. Examine each of the stages of the bodhisattva and how each stage requires us to master one of the ten perfections identified by the Buddha. We'll examine the lives of Lanello to see how he passed—and sometimes failed—his tests. We'll then apply these insights to our own path to discover antidotes to our own psychological and spiritual stumbling blocks.

LIGHT MEDITATIONS & TECHNIQUES

Quantum Focus I & II—with Karen Strickland

Live Seminar

Cincinnati, Ohio January 21 & 22
Indianapolis, Indiana, February 18 & 19
Sedona, Arizona, March 11 & 12

Years of physical and emotional stress, as well as negative thoughts and feelings, take their toll on the body. Focusing attention at the quantum/light level brings the most effective, surest and safest way to health and wholeness. Learn to use quantum light particles for cleansing and removal of negative input as well as protection against harmful invaders. Learn exercises and techniques to balance the body's energy flow and ways to correctly self examine the body's energy and discern the factors causing out-of-balance states for a return to harmony with your divine inner blueprint.

The Science of Sound—

with Dr. Marsha E. Covington
Teleseminar and live seminar in Chicagoland, Tuesdays throughout February & March

Intoning the Word is the essential ingredient in alchemy for transformation. Learn ancient teachings about sound and light as the building blocks of creation. We will honor, explore and practice the science of sound as used in many varied faiths as we learn and test which applications most effectively precipitate our desired outcomes. Learn and apply the latest findings of quantum physics to the science of mantra and song combined with prayer, visualization and meditation.

Violet Flame 101—with Janette Mathis and Dr. Marsha E. Covington
Teleseminar Wednesdays throughout February

We'll explore the Alchemist's once-secret technology of the violet transforming flame. We'll review the science behind this spiritual tool and learn to use it to transform our lives. Saint Germain says you can change your past, and we will show you how.

WORLD TEACHERS TRAINING

World teachers are pursuing advanced courses that qualify them to represent the New Wisdom through teaching, coaching, missions and ministries, writing, public speaking, music, publishing or working with the media. Graduation from World Teachers Training is required for enrollment in these courses. For more information on how to qualify for this program contact our Registrar Gail Wells at 406.388.1613.

Learner-Centered Teaching and Course Design—with Dr. Marsha E.

Covington and Patricia Luopa, MA
Teleseminar every Thursday throughout January, February and March

Join with other world teachers for instruction and discussions on the learner-centered approach to learning, teaching methods and tips, and an in-depth study of how to develop courses to help people learn the New Wisdom.

How to Teach the Pure Joy System

One-hour teleseminar every other Saturday morning throughout the quarter beginning in February.

Dr. Covington will share her research into the new sciences and ancient teachings that underlie Saint Germain's new age violet flame technology.
